Charles Washington, Jr. Mayor

January 1, 2021

Happy New Year!!

I want to thank my colleagues for trusting me in a leadership role again this year as Council President. It is an honor and a position that I take very seriously. You, as elected members of this governing body, have chosen to run for office in a very troubled City, but a City that has great history, and an even greater future. My role as president is not to dictate policy, or to lead with an iron hand, but to reach a consensus on the many issues that we face in Salem. I welcome the return of Council person Sharon Kellum, and newly elected Sharen Cline. Welcome to the fight to make Salem a better place.

2020 was a year like none of us can remember in our lifetimes. But Americans have faced great challenges before. When our army was starving at Valley Forge, when we faced the pandemic of 1918, the horrible struggles of the Great depression, as we watched our sons and daughters march off to wars in Europe, Korea, the jungles of Viet Nam, and the blinding heat of the middle east, and as we struggled with racial inequality (as we still do). But we persevered. We persevered, knowing that God is our strength and our comfort.

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.” - Psalm 46:1 “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort.” - 2 Corinthians 1:3

In 2020 we faced a new threat, COVID-19. This pandemic not only took some of our friends and loved ones, but also damaged our economy and dramatically changed our way of life. But as Americans, with our faith in a merciful God, we will persevere.

Salem, much like the rest of our nation, is struggling as well. 2020 saw a record number of young people losing their lives to violence in our city. This tragedy must stop. As leaders it is our duty to find answers, but, like you, I do not have the answers. I am calling on this council, with help from members of the community, to form a task force, The Peace Task Force. (Salem is a Hebrew word that means Peace). This task force will be made up of all parts of our community. The Peace Task Force will have one priority in 2021 – to stop the violence in our City. We will start to build the Task Force with volunteers from the governing body and expand to clergy, law enforcement, representatives from our schools, businesses, and others that will work together to come up with a community-based solution to stop this senseless ongoing tragedy within our City.

Looking back on 2020 there were some very high points of success for the City, led by this council and Mayor Washington. We made strides in getting our own house in order. Because as most of you will understand, until our own house is strong, we cannot begin to help others. We were able to strengthen our financial picture. Working with the State we were able to relieve the burden of the onerous debt of the Finlaw building, work through the beginning process of privatizing our utility, and to ensure that we are in compliance to receive much needed state aid. The Mayor approached new business startups, and we began making progress in working with South Jersey Port Corp to upgrade the facility at our port.

We initiated a two-year plan to upgrade and repair our playgrounds and basketball courts, and we brought the County, our municipal neighbors, and our State and Federal officials together to address solving our surface water and Town Bank flooding issues. We further initiated a plan to get City owned abandoned properties back on the tax rolls. You can expect to see many property auctions this year as we attempt to restore our neighborhoods.

As someone once said, "Good government is because of good people". We have assembled a very strong team that has made a lot of this happen. I thank all of our dedicated workers but want to especially note the importance of bringing together our management team. My thanks go out to Ben Angeli, Administrator, Kenia Nunez, our financial person, and Charles (Matt) Bailey as our commerce director. I also want to especially thank our Police Chief, John Pelura, who as you know has had a very difficult 2020. John, help is on the way, this year we also received a grant to increase the amount of our police force by four sworn officers, at no cost to the taxpayers.

I also want to thank Fire Chief Ayars. The Chief has led a group of volunteers that with limited resources never fails to respond to an emergency. We were fortunate enough to receive a large grant to assist the department in recruiting new volunteers and we are also moving forward in looking at the infrastructure of the fire department in a comprehensive plan to consolidate and upgrade the department into one facility.

Others to thank that may not be as familiar to you the members of the public, our state monitor, Edward Sasdelli, and our DEP coordinator Vince Caliguire. Both gentlemen have worked tirelessly for the success of this City. I also want to acknowledge our strengthened partnership with Stand Up For Salem. They are an integral part of our success with many projects ongoing within the City. I strongly believe that united we can overcome our greatest challenges.

As we open 2021, we must face our challenges with courage and commitment. With God as our foundation, and with making Salem safer and better as our beacon we surely will succeed. I thank all of you for your service and wish you all a happy, safe, and much better 2021.
